

Topic: Definition: Logical thinking: "step" to ensure situation . is the story isters systematically and "search". wishing and evidence . It involves step by step thinking without contradictions thinking without Critical Thinking : Critical thinking is the ability to analyze systematically and reach conclusions stutions systematically and rather than emotions based on weighing evidence Claim # statement that says something claim is a statement that asserts something , but it may require proof # is a set of statements including set of # provides support for a conclusion conclusion . conclusion is the final statement in an argument that follows logically from the premises . Fact vs Opinions : Fact: A statement that can be verified as there are false through evidence Opinion : A personal belief or judgement that can't be proven true or false